20. The information relating to the 2014 Apr-Aug Financial Performance, which contained key financial information of the Company including turnover and profit in the relevant period, constituted “inside information” within the meaning of the definition of that term in section 307A(1) of the Ordinance in that:-
- (1) It was specific information about the Company; and
  - (2) It was not generally known to the persons who were accustomed to or would be likely to deal in the listed securities of the Company but would if generally known to them have been likely to materially affect the price of the securities.
21. The information relating to the 2014 Apr-Aug Financial Performance did, or ought reasonably to have, come to the knowledge of all members of the board of directors, including the 2nd to 7th Specified Persons, as officers of the Company, on or around 13 October 2014 by virtue of the 13 October Email.

27. As officers of the Company, the 2nd to 7th Specified Persons would each be in breach of the disclosure requirement if (individually considered) the breach by the Company was as a result of their reckless or negligent conduct under section 307G(2)(a) of the Ordinance or if they had not taken all reasonable measures from time to time to ensure that proper safeguards exist to prevent the breach under section 307G(2)(b) of the Ordinance.
28. By reason of the matters set out above, each of the 2nd to 7th Specified Persons was aware of, or alternatively ought reasonably to have become aware of, the inside information pertaining to the 2014 Apr-Aug Financial Performance (which revealed a significant improvement in the Company’s financial performance) on or around 13 October 2014.

29. Philip Suen, as an executive director and the officer responsible for the Securities Investment Segment of the Company, failed to ensure timely disclosure of the inside information pertaining to the 2014 Apr-Aug Financial Performance to the public after it had, or ought reasonably to have, come to his knowledge. Such failure amounted to reckless or negligent conduct on his part.
30. The 3rd to 7th Specified Persons, as directors of the Company, failed to ensure timely disclosure of the inside information pertaining to the 2014 Apr-Aug Financial Performance to the public after it had, or ought reasonably to have, come to their knowledge. The failure of each of them amounted to reckless or negligent conduct on their part.
31. Further or alternatively, at all material times, there were no proper safeguards existing in the Company to prevent a breach of the disclosure requirement under Part XIVA of the Ordinance. Each of the 2nd to 7th Specified Persons had failed to take all reasonable measures from time to time to ensure that proper safeguards exist to prevent a breach of the disclosure requirement (under Part XIVA of the Ordinance) pursuant to section 307G(2)(b) of the Ordinance.
32. In the circumstances, the 2nd to 7th Specified Persons were, or might have been, in breach of the disclosure requirement pursuant to section 307G(2)(a) and/or section 307G(2)(b) of the Ordinance.
